

Second Annual

ONEBODY

CONFERENCE

Moving Disability Ministry Forward

We are called to be one body of Christ. Families affected by disability, volunteers, ministry leaders, and anyone desiring to care for God's people are welcome. You will learn the tools to begin, enhance and move disability ministry forward!

Saturday, April 6th

8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Faith Covenant Church

12921 Nicollet Ave, South Burnsville, MN 55337

Registration: joniandfriends.org/onebody

(Includes lunch and materials)

$40 per person before March 15th

$50 per person at the door

Workshop topics include:

- Understanding Disability
- Church Engagement & Community Outreach
- Disability Ministry Models
- Encouragement for Parents
- Plus More!

Additional resources will be available.

Keynote Speaker

Emily Colson is a nationally known author, speaker and disability advocate. In her award-winning book, Dancing with Max, Emily and her father, Chuck Colson, shared the struggle and beauty of life with Max, Emily's 28 year-old son with autism. Emily has been a single mother for most of Max's 28 years, with hard fought lessons in faith, life, love and a whole lot of laughter.